Bad Luck and Fine Fielding Prove Too Much for the Indianapolis Team.

They Make More Hits Than Their Opponents. but They Were Not Bunched-Results of Other League and Association Games.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

PITTSBURG, July 26.-By a rare comof good luck and remarkable fielding, Pittsburg defeated Indianapolis in the opening game to-day. Morris has not yet fully recovered and, having little speed, was hit hard, but magnificent out-field work saved him. Time and again things looked as though the visitors would make several runs, but just when their chances seemed brigetest a fine piece of fielding would intervene to spoil them. Coleman's catch of Denny's terrific drive in the sixth was by all odds the feature of the game. It was a onehand running pull down of what would have been close to a nome run. Double plays were thick as berries. Glasscock and Denny did excellent work, and saved Healy several hits. Sunday sprained his ankle in the fifth and was replaced by Miller. Sunday opened the game with a double to left, went to third on Carroll's scratch single, and scored on Daily's throw to head off Carroll's steal of second. Coleman got a base on balls. Beckley flew out to McGeachy, Carroll was shut out at the plate on Dunlap's hit to Glasscock; Dalrymple went out at first. Seery got a base on balls, stole second, and was thrown out at third on Denny's hit to Smith. Hines hit to Kuehne, who doubled Denny up. Kuehne's error let Buckley to first, Esterbrook's double to left sent him to third, and he was caught at the plate trying to score on it. McGeachey hit safe to right, Coleman fielding the ball so quickly to the plate as to catch Esterbrook half way home, and before he could return Carroll threw him out to Kuehne. Beckley's single, his steal of second, and Dunlap's single account Pittsburg's second another single by Beckley in the sixth, Daily's wild throw, Hines's fumble and Dunlap's sacrifice gave them a third run. In the fifth, with one man out, McGeachy got a double to center and scored on Daily's single in the same direction. Esterbrook and McGeachy hit safe in the seventh, and nobody was out, but Daily placed a grounder in Dunlap's hands, and a double play resulted, Healy then flying out to Miller. Again, in the eighth, Indianapolis had two men on bases, but could not score, owing to fine out-fielding. The attendance was 1.300.

CHICAGO, July 26 .- The Detroits made few but valuable hits off Baldwin to-day, and with these and Ryan's easy playing, were able to win the game. The center-fielder did not attempt to catch Brouthers's fly in the third, and when the ball dropped and rolled, he scarcely more than walked after it. The Chicagos were unable to get the ball away from the fielders. Seven thousand people attended the game. Score:

The Kellehers will play the Greencastle club at the Athletic Park, Tuesday pext. Serry stands second in the League in base running. Ewing alone exceeds him. Sunday The Chicago reporters wrote some very silly things about the Indianapolis games. The idea of referring to Shreve as "the weakest of pitchers" after he had fairly played with such hard hitting teams as New York and Detroit. Here is a sample of the headline in the Chicago papers after Tuesday's game: "Chicago's Ball Team Knocked Off Its High Perch by a Gang of No-Account Hoosiers." The Chicago papers do not appear to realize that the Indianapolis club has won more games than Chicago since July 1, when the Hoosiers were for the first time in good condition.

Detroit Free Press: The Detroit management has decided to protest the game of Friday. They have a clear case. The rule distinctly sets forth that if a club does not begin playing five minutes after being ordered to do so by the umpire the game is forfeited. At 4:30 o'clock Friday afternoon umpire Kelly ordered Anson to play ball. Anson refused point blank. Five minutes later umpire Kelly should have declared the game forfeited.

BLOOMFIELD, July 26 .- Last night, about 10 o'clock, while Capt. J. D. Alexander and wife were returning home from a neighbor's, they discovered a letter in the gateway which read as follows:

"Beware of Grace Lyons. She intends to kill

A TEN-YEAR-OLD FRIEND." Very naturally Mrs. Alexander became nuch excited over the matter and resolved to interview Miss Lyons in regard to it. She immediately proceeded to her home, which was adjoining, and acquainted Miss Lyons with the facts, which threw the young lady into almost unconsciousness, and her screams and cries at once brought the citizens of that vicinity from their beds and homes to the unpleasant scene. Miss Lyons denied all knowledge of the affair, and is much distressed over the embarrassing situation. Both families are highly respected, and notwithstanding the affair is wrapped in mystery no one believes it other than the act of some meddlesome and ill-disposed person.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MUNCIE, July 26 .- The occasion of the third annual veterans' reunion here has caused the crowd to increase to fully ten thousand visitors to-day. This morning the soldiers formed into line at the fair grounds, and with bands and drum corps made a fine parade into the city. The sham battle this afternoon was the greatest feature of to-day's programme. The Union forces were commanded by General Grose, of New Castle, and the opposing side by General Cary, of Marion. At a business meeting of the officers of the association, officers for the ensuing year were elected. The district has heretofore been composed of the counties of Delaware, Blackford, Grant and Madison. Randolph and Jay asked for admission, and were received. The reunion was a grand success.

VINCENNES, July 26 .- In boring here for gas, about a year ago, it was discovered that there were large veins of coal below the surface. A contract has been made with the Bullock Manufacturing Company, Chicago, to bore 600 feet to determine the exact depth, quality and quantity of the coal. They are to do this work with a diamond drill for $2,100. There is believed to be five and six-foot veins of coal at a depth of 320 and 370 feet, respectively, below the surface. Three car-loads of the machinery have arrived here preparatory to beginning the work, which will be vigorously prosecuted. The development of this source of wealth will be a great bonanza for Vincennes.

College Changes.

BALTIMORK, July 26 .- Dr. Joseph Jastrow, a special student of psychology at Johns Hopkins University, has been appointed to the chair of experimental and comparative psychology at the University of Wisconsin, at Madison. Dr. C. E. Sanford, a special student of psychology at Johns Hopkins University, has been appointed editor of the American Journal of Psychology. Dr. R. O. Graham, a special student of chemistry at Johns Hopkins University for the past year, has been appointed to a professorship of chemistry in Bloomington, Ill.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 25 .- While a freight train was passing Yutan, Neb., yesterday morning, it broke in two, the rear cars crashing into the forward part of the train with great force, derailing four or five cars. One of the wrecked cars was loaded with corn, in which six tramps had concealed themselves. This car was overturned and the tramps smothered by the corn. Three of the bodies are identified. One is John C. Taylor, a cigar maker, of Louisville, Ky .; another is that of Charles Spokes, of Wymore, Neb., and the third is that of Carl B. Talbert,

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

ACTON CAMP, July 26 .- It is becoming quite warm again, but the weather does not wilt the flower of religion which blooms here. The 5:30 early morning prayer-meeting to-day was led by Rev. A. A. Jones, of Brightwood, and gave good results. The speaking meeting at 8 A. M. was largely attended and showed increased interest. The testimonials given in this service were eloquent in their simplicity and indicated that many hearts had been touched.

At 10 o'clock a large audience listened to Henry Date, of Chicago, as he related his experience. His subject was "From Under the Barbed Wire Fence into Beulah Land." It was rich. Those who remained in their cottage missed one of the feasts of all the meeting. The whole audience was moved as at no other time. Mr. Date is an exceedingly small man; and one in looking at him would wonder how God could use him. But as president of the Young People's Methodist Alliance, he has met with great success. He left on the noon train for Ohio, where he will be engaged in his work for several

The song service at 2 o'clock was largely attended. Rev. S. F. Anderson, of Indianapolis, preached at 2:30 P. M. upon "Our Hope of Heaven," from the fifth verse of the first chapter of Collossians. This year, for the first time, Mr. Anderson visited Acton. He is enthusiastic over the outlook and the results, and gave us a very interesting, comforting, gospel sermon. The children's meeting is becoming more interesting each day. To-day it was largely attended. Professor Hudson practically illustrated what he teaches, and upon the little hearts, upon which he has a strong hold, lessons are indelibly written. The young people's meeting at 6:30 was the best yet in every respect. The organization of the Alliance was completed. As said before, this Alliance is calculated to be of great help and blessing to the young people of all churches. The organization at Acton will do practical, effective work among the young peopie here each year. The following officers and committees were appointed to serve in the

Alliance for the ensuing year: President—Rev. A. A. Jones, Brightwood. Vice-president—Mrs. G. W. Taylor, Indianapolis. Secretary and Treasurer-Mrs. L. D. Moore, In-

Directors-Rev. E. B. Rawls, Greensburg; L. S. Cumback, Greensburg. Invitation Committee—Eugene V. Stealey, Dayton, O.; J. W. Keller, Indianapolis; Miss Daisy Brown, Bellview, O.; Mrs. J. A. Coleman, Indianapolis. Visiting Committee-Mrs. Kate Applegate, Indian-apolis; Mrs. Hattie N. Robins, Shelbyville; Rev. J. A. Sargent, Shelbyville; Miss Maria D. Coy, Greensburg: Mrs. Dr. Keen, Indianapolis.

Literature Committee—Mrs. F. M. Dowden, Greensburg; Mrs. J. G. Chafee, College Corner, O.; Le Roy N. Pattison, Southport; Miss Mattie E. Sparks, Indianapolis; Miss Etta Miller, Indianapolis.

Press Committee—Rev. E. P. Brown, Morristown; Rev. L. D. Moore, Indianapolis; M. B. Robins, Shelbyville; Ed L. Keen, Indianapolis; Mrs. T. B. McLain,

Floral Committee-Miss Lizzie B. Lathrop, Greensburg; Miss Pearl E. Macy, Indianapolis; Miss Alta M. Roberts, Jeffersonville. There were very few empty seats in the audiorium at 7:45 P. M. when the Rev. Mr. Bitler conducted evangelistic services, preaching from the words, "Herein is love, not that we love God, but that He loved us, and sent His Son to be a propitiation for our sin." There were several at the altar. The meeting was one o' de p interest. To-morrow afternoon the time w...l b given to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. Addresses will be made by 7:45 .- Preaching and evangelistic services. The Fair-Ground Entertainment.

A large crowd attended the racing and balloon ascension at the fair grounds yesterday, both afternoon and evening, the visiting delegations adding largely to the gate receipts. The exhibition was a most creditable one. Chariot, trotting and running races filled out the first part of the programme, and the new track, lately improved, showed that praise regarding it has not been given without due consideration of its merits. The chief interest in the performances centered upon Prof. E. S. Hogan's ascent in his balloon to the height of 6,000 feet, as it was advertised, and dropping to the earth by means of a parachute. The hazardous feat was successfully accomplished. At 5 o'clock the balloon was acut loose, and the Professor sailed far above the heads of his gaping audience, using a single trapeze bar as a support. At the height of 1,500 feet, he seized the ring of his parachute. and swinging himself loose from the balloon, descended at a lively rate until he reached the ground in safety some distance from the grounds. The balloon slowly floated down, and will be used again to-day and to morrow, when the exhibitions will be repeated. The feat is Mejor Steele and the Soldiers' Home. Evansville Journal. The Courier's article giving President Cleveland and his party credit for the establishment of the new National Soldiers' Home at Marion, Grant County, this State, is cool enough for freezing weather. Its audacity is astonishing even for the Courier. Congressman George W. Steele, a Republican, who represents this district in Congress, is the man who worked the matter up and obtained this great advantage for his constituents and State. It will be a great boon for hundreds of Indiana veterans to have a soldiers' home established in our State. Marion is situated in a beautiful portion of the State, in the natural-gas belt. The location is healthful and the population enterprising. Altogether, Major Steele is entitled to great credit for the skill with which he has engineered this movement through. It speaks well for his influence. His constituents are so enthusiastic in his praise that they are proposing him for the Republican nomination for governor. Brice's Campaign of Intellect.

New York Special. A little scheme has just been devised between the Democratic managers to injure General Harrison on the Pacific coast. They propose to dress a lot of loafers up as Chinamen and have them parade here in honor of the Republican candidate. The procession will be photographed and copies sent all over the Western States and Pacific coast. This is a good example of what

Mr. Brice calls "the contest of ideas." The Campaign of 1888.
